Everyone deserves a childhood...

The "Little Yellow Schoolhouse" is a non-profit organization located on Isla Mujeres that is dedicated to providing education, therapy and support for challenged children with special needs. In order to provide for these children the "Little Yellow Schoolhouse" depends entirely on the donations of private donors, such as yourself and fundraisers such as this tournament. This 3 day sailfish tournament and nightly party is an opportunity that no fisherman or fun lover can turn down and a great opportunity to help the special children of Isla Mujeres!
